Hearing Date: November 29, 2012
 Time: 3:30 p.m.
 Courtroom: 10, 19th Floor
 Judge: Honorable Susan Illston

1 I, Craig C. Corbitt, declare as follows:

2 1. I am an attorney licensed to practice in the State of California and before this Court, 3 the U.S. Supreme Court, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, and numerous other federal courts in 4 the United States. I am a partner in the law firm Zelle Hofmann Voelbel & Mason LLP, co-lead
5 class counsel for the Indirect-Purchaser Plaintiffs (“IPPs”). I have personal knowledge of the facts
6 stated in this declaration and, if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently to them.
7 I make this declaration in support of the Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs’ Motion for Attorneys’ Fees
8 and Incentive Awards (“Motion”).

9 Lodestar

10 2. I was primarily responsible for preparing the Motion and coordinating the 11 submission of the related documents. In that capacity, I requested each IPP co-counsel firm to 12 submit a form declaration under penalty of perjury signed by a senior partner or equivalent person, 13 attesting among other things to the hours his or her firm devoted to this case, the rates charged, the 14 tasks performed, whether such tasks had been assigned or approved by Co-Lead counsel, and 15 whether the firm complied with the Court’s orders concerning contemporaneous recording of time
16 and periodic submission of reports to Liaison Counsel. We asked co-counsel not to include 17 information about specific firm costs such as travel, legal research, etc., since the IPPs are not 18 requesting the Court to award these costs, and not to include time spent on any aspect of the fee
19 petition. Based on the time reports submitted to Liaison Counsel and IPP Counsel’s declarations, 20 attached hereto as Exhibit A is a summary table listing by individual firms the total reported hours 21 and lodestars under historical and current rates.

22 3. Concurrently filed with the Motion and this declaration is a compendium of 23 declarations from IPP Class Counsel, reporting a total lodestar of $148 million at historical rates 24 and $159.6 million at current rates. The IPP Class Counsel who signed these declarations are 25 solely responsible for their content, including their representations concerning their hours and 26 lodestar, as well as any representations made about the contributions their firms have made. I and 27 others at my firm have not independently verified the contents of each declaration. I understand

1 that the Special Master will be conducting such a review, at the Court's request. In the few
2 instances where we did not receive a declaration, we used the numbers reported to Liaison Counsel 3 instead.

4 4. If the Court awards the requested 28.5% fee, the multiplier on reported time would 5 be 2.08 at historical rates and 1.93 at current rates. To account generously for potential 6 inefficiencies, we have alternatively assumed a hypothetical reduction of 20% to the total reported 7 lodestar (without conceding that such a significant reduction is appropriate or that any reduction 8 should be applied equally to all firms). The adjusted multipliers assuming these 20% reductions to 9 historical and current rates are 2.60 and 2.42, respectively.

10 Extraordinary result

11 5. IPP counsel include a number of attorneys with long experience in antitrust class 12 action litigation and indirect purchaser litigation in particular, including for example Francis 13 Scarpulla, who pioneered indirect purchaser litigation in California state court, Josef Cooper, 14 myself and others. To the best of our knowledge, these settlements are the largest all-cash 15 settlements ever achieved in indirect-purchaser litigation, and among the largest ever achieved in 16 any antitrust class action.

17 6. I was primarily responsible for preparing the testimony of the IPP experts for trial.
18 The average of the final single damage estimates for all certified state damage classes that would 19 have been offered at trial by Dr. Netz and Prof. Comanor was approximately $2.2 billion.
20 Therefore, the IPPs, assisted by the Settling States, recovered approximately half of the single 21 damages sustained by the class members in the 24 certified class states, and more than half 22 counting the civil penalties going to the Settling States.

23 7. As part of the settlements, all defendants manufacturers other than Toshiba, 24 Chunghwa and Epson agreed to refrain from discussing LCD prices for illicit purposes for a period 25 of 5 years (others no longer manufacture LCD panels), and all defendants agreed to initiate or 26 maintain antitrust compliance programs for periods of 3-5 years.

1 worldwide transactional sales data of all TFT-LCD panels produced by defendants in the global 2 market. They also sought and received manufacturing cost data and detailed transactional sales 3 data of TFT-LCD finished products (TVs, monitors and notebooks) manufactured by the 4 defendants and sold in the U.S.

5 12. To use as much of the electronic data as possible, IPPs spent over a year with each 6 defendant communicating frequently with counsel and the defendants' economic experts about the 7 interpretation of the electronic data and the companies' databases. These technical discussions 8 required continuous consultation with the IPPs' experts, meetings and correspondence with the 9 defendants, and at times motion practice.

10 Class Certification

11 13. The IPPs deposed over two dozen 30(b)(6) witnesses provided by the defendants on 12 issues relating to class certification, e.g., channels of distribution, manufacturing, pricing, and sales 13 processes, identities of witnesses, and various issues critical to the IPPs' class certification experts.
14 Each of these depositions required extensive document review and preparation. Following 15 negotiations and ultimately orders by the Special Master, the depositions took place in various 16 locations throughout the country and in Asia. A deposition protocol was negotiated and disputes 17 about that were also resolved by the Special Master. Dkt. 1546, 1730.

18 14. The IPPs served over 50 third party subpoenas, primarily on direct purchasers of 19 panels and distributors and sellers of products containing LCD panels. Most of these were very 20 large entities such as Dell, Hewlett Packard, and Best Buy. These were especially critical because 21 the IPPs needed to demonstrate that pass through of the direct overcharge could be established on a 22 class-wide basis. Each of these subpoenas had to be individually negotiated, with the assistance of 23 the IPPs' expert economists.

24 15. There were 40 named plaintiffs appointed by the Court to represent class members 25 in the certified states, and another 8 named in the IPP consolidated complaint but not appointed.
26 All of them produced documents, and the defendants deposed them all, in various locations 27

1 throughout the country. Preparing these plaintiffs and defending them in depositions also required
2 substantial time by IPP counsel.

3 16. The IPPs retained Dr. Janet Netz of applEcon LLC in Ann Arbor, Michigan to 4 render an opinion on class certification. She filed two reports totaling hundreds of pages on this 5 issue, and was deposed twice on class certification. Her defense counterpart was Dean Edward 6 Snyder, then of the University of Chicago, now at Yale. He also produced lengthy reports, and was 7 deposed by Class Counsel.

8 Merits Discovery

9 17. After the class was certified, the IPPs focused intensively on merits discovery. In 10 addition to the ongoing review of documents, IPP counsel drafted requests for admission and 11 interrogatories that led to significant additional information about the conspiracy, particularly from 12 Samsung, the amnesty applicant. Teams of IPP document reviewers located the most significant 13 conspiracy documents produced by each defendant, in foreign languages as well as English. The 14 IPPs divided responsibility for taking depositions with the DPPs, and IPP counsel often provided 15 the DPPs with many of the documents they used for their examinations. Over 100 merits
16 depositions of the defendants were taken; 32 in Asia, most of which required foreign language
17 translators. Gradually, a record was developed that implicated every defendant in virtually all 18 aspects of the conspiracy, for the entire eight year damage period alleged.

19 Motion Practice

20 18. Throughout the case, the IPPs filed and responded to significant motions, including 21 11 motions for summary judgment. The key contested motions in the IPP case are listed below, 22 exclusive of motions in limine and discovery disputes:

- 23 • IPPs' Memorandum in Opposition to Defendants' Motions to Dismiss
24 Consolidated Amended Complaint (Dkt. 516, filed Mar. 20, 2008)
- 25 • IPPs' Memorandum in Opposition to Defendants' Motions to Dismiss
26 Second Consolidated Amended Complaint (Dkt. 802, filed Jan. 30, 2009)

- 12 Preliminary Approval of Combined Class, Parens Patriae, and
- 13 Governmental Entity Settlements with AUO, LG Display, and Toshiba
- 14 Defendants (Dkt. 6141, filed July 12, 2012)

15 Trial Preparation

16 19. Before the final three settlements, with LG Display, AUO and Toshiba, were 17 reached in late April of this year, the IPPs fully expected to go to trial and were preparing 18 accordingly. We retained a jury consultant, and conducted two all-day mock trials. Pursuant to 19 the Court's order for a single joint trial with the DPPs and all remaining defendants in either case, 20 the IPPs coordinated trial preparation with the DPPs. Class Counsel drafted, negotiated and 21 submitted proposed jury instructions. We drafted and filed more than 20 motions in limine, and 22 opposed a comparable number filed by the defendants. We met with and prepared preliminary 23 trial testimony for class representatives. We selected live trial witnesses from the defendants, and 24 filed a trial witness list with descriptions of testimony. We designated trial exhibits and deposition 25 testimony, responded to objections by the defendants, and prepared objections to the defendants'
26 corresponding trial evidence designation. We negotiated and filed several admissibility 27 stipulations for proposed trial exhibits, and negotiated hundreds of disputes concerning foreign

1 language translations. We drafted, negotiated, and filed a proposed jury verdict form. We filed a 2 Joint Pretrial Statement. Trial preparation was intensively ongoing when the case settled.

3 Mediation, Settlement Negotiations, and Settlement

4 20. As discussed above, IPP Co-Lead counsel negotiated the first settlement with 5 Chunghwa, for a cash payment ultimately agreed to be $5.3 million, and significant assistance with 6 the prosecution of the case. A smaller settlement followed with Epson, ultimately agreed to be 7 $2.85 million; Epson was not involved in the Crystal Meetings and had a very low market share.¹

8 21. The Court then appointed Eric Green as a mediator for all MDL cases. The Settling 9 States also began actively participating in these discussions, in cooperation with the IPPs.
10 Representatives of the California, Florida, and Missouri Attorneys General participated in person 11 on behalf of their states and other Settling States. A number of sessions were held under Mr.
12 Green's auspices, and eventually the Hon Daniel Weinstein (Ret.) of JAMS also assisted the 13 parties.

14 22. As a result of these discussions, additional settlements were reached during 2011 15 with Chimei (CMO), Hitachi, Hannstar, Samsung and Sharp, bringing the total amount to 16 $538,555.647. The Court has granted final approval all of these settlements. Dkt. 6130. The last 17 three settlements were not achieved until shortly before trial. Co-Lead Counsel negotiated the 18 Toshiba settlement directly along with the California Attorney General. The AUO and LG 19 Display settlements were reached with the assistance of the Hon. Vaughn Walker (Ret.), former 20 Chief Judge of the Northern District of California. No doubt due to the IPPs' focus on trial
21 preparation, their successes in defeating the various dispositive motions, the motion to decertify
22 the class, and the Daubert motion, and with the persistence of the Settling States, the last three 23 defendants to settle ended up collectively agreeing to pay more than did the first seven. The grand 24 total is $1,082,055,647. In addition, the Settling States recovered a total of over $42 million in 25

26 ¹ The initial agreements with Chunghwa and Epson were for $10 million and $5 million 27 respectively, but the amounts were proportionately reduced when the parties agreed to limit the 28 damages release to the certified states.
